Trip Planning to Honduras

53rd ALIDE General Assembly

IMMIGRATION FORMALITIES

The requirements for entry into Honduras are:

- A valid passport (with at least six months' validity).
- Visa (check whether your country requires a visa for entry into Honduras).
- Airline tickets (for arrival and departure).
- Hotel reservation or other lodging arrangements.
- International (yellow fever) vaccination certificate. Check to see whether this or any other vaccination certificate is required for entry into Honduras from your country of origin.
- COVID-19 vaccination card (full dose).
- Migration pre-check: <https://prechequeo.inm.gob.hn/Login> (you must present before your boarding)
- Custom form: https://sisglobal.aduanas.gob.hn/Pech/#/plataforma/otra_gestiones/formularioDJRV (It must be completed and saved in the cell phone to be shown)

All participants are recommended to check with the Honduran Embassy or Consulate in their respective countries whether any additional documents are required to enter Honduras, particularly as regards visas and vaccinations, among other things.

VISAS

Participants in the ALIDE General Assembly are responsible for consulting and/or checking with the Embassy or Consulate of Honduras in their respective countries whether an entry visa is required. If so, make sure to give yourself enough time to obtain it.

Participants who are holders of ordinary passports from the following countries of origin require a visa to enter Honduras: Azerbaijan; Belarus (); Benin; Bhutan; Bolivia; Burkina Faso; Burundi; Cabo Verde; Cambodia; Central African Republic; Chad; Colombia (); Comoros; Djibouti; Dominica; Ecuador (); Egypt; Equatorial Guinea; Gabon; Gambia; Georgia; Grenada; Guinea; Guinea-Bissau; Guyana; Ivory Coast; Jamaica; Kazakhstan; Kiribati; Kyrgyzstan; Lesotho; Malawi; Maldives; Mauritania; Mauritius; Micronesia; Moldova; Montenegro; Morocco; Myanmar; Namibia; Nauru; Niger; Palau; Papua New Guinea; Peru (); Philippines; Rwanda; Samoa; Senegal; Serbia; Seychelles; Suriname; Swaziland; Thailand; Tajikistan; Tanzania; Togo; Tonga; Tunisia; Turkmenistan; Uganda; Uzbekistan; Zambia; Zimbabwe.

(*) Honduras will treat ordinary passports as allowing for "visa-free" entry into the country.

FLIGHTS TO AND FROM SAN PEDRO SULA

Situated in the heart of the Sula Valley, the country's most productive area, the Ramón Villeda Morales Airport of San Pedro Sula is the largest of its kind in the northern zone and Honduras' most important airport. For more information, see: <https://ehisa.hn/aeropuerto-ramon-villeda-morales/>

The current Ramón Villeda Morales International Airport is 20 km from the city of San Pedro Sula, the country's most active industrial city.

The most important airlines that serve the airport are:

San Pedro Sula can also be reached by taking a flight of approximately 2 hours from Tegucigalpa's Palmerola Airport.

TRANSPORT

Participants will have access to a courtesy transport service on arrival in and departure from San Pedro Sula, from Ramón Villeda Morales International Airport to the COPANTL Hotel conference venue and back, which will operate:

From May 29 to June 3

For that reason, it is important for them to communicate their arrival and departure dates, airline, flight numbers and schedules in their Registration Forms or to send an e-mail containing that information to the attention of Marlene Zamora at mzamora@alide.org

For participants requiring special transport, below is a list of official taxi/car rental companies that provide transport to and from the airport for referential purposes:
